Technic Appoints Claudia Mosher Product Manager for Anodizing Processes

Cranston, Rhode Island – Technic is pleased to announce the appointment of Claudia Mosher as Product Manager for anodizing and powder coating pretreatment products in North America. Together with Technic’s national sales team, Claudia will oversee the sales and distribution of Alufinish products in both the U.S. and Canada. A graduate of Bielefeld College in Germany with Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Claudia has over 30 years’ experience in the electroplating industry as a Research Chemist, Technical Service Manager, and a Senior Sales Manager with LeaRonan Inc. and now Technic.

Alufinish is a leader in the aluminum anodizing and passivation market throughout Europe and the Middle East and has recently expanded into the U.S. and Canada through an exclusive distribution agreement with Technic. Alufinish products are highly engineered to pass the most stringent performance requirements, including Qualinod and Qualicoat standards for architectural profiles and high pH resistance for automotive exterior trim.
